

The NCMA Free State Chapter Presents...

EXPORT CONTROL:

Tips and Traps in Today's Enforcement Era

Co-Presented by:

Lindsay Meyer
Partner
Venable LLP

For over twenty years, Ms. Meyer has provided International Trade and Customs advice at Venable where she heads Venable's International Practice based in Washington, D.C. Ms. Meyer concentrates on all aspects of International Trade and Customs matters. As a licensed U.S. Customs broker, Lindsay has a detailed knowledge of and extensive experience with the regulations of the U.S. Bureau of Customs and Border Protection. She regularly advises companies on their compliance with import and export control laws and regulations and has successfully defended exporters facing civil and criminal investigations for alleged violations of U.S. export control laws and embargoes, Ms. Meyer regularly appears before numerous regulatory authorities such as the U.S. Customs and Border Protection, International Trade Commission, Commerce Department's Bureau of Industry and Security, State Department's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls, Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control, and the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States .

and

Jahna Hartwig
Assoc. General Counsel
JHU/APL

Jahna is the Associate General Counsel responsible for export control and international matters at the Johns Hopkins University Applied Physics Laboratory. She also serves as a member of the Defense Trade Advisory Group, the Federal Advisory Committee that advises the State Department's Bureau of Political-Military Affairs on issues involving U.S. laws, policies, and regulations for munitions exports. Prior to joining APL, Jahna worked as an Associate at Weil Gotshal & Manges LLP and at Kaye Scholer LLP specializing in international trade, including countervailing and antidumping duties and customs cases, and export controls matters before U.S. government agencies, the U.S. Court of International Trade, NAFTA Panels and the World Trade Organization. Upon completion of her law degree in 1999, Jahna clerked for the Honorable Thomas J. Aquilino, Jr. at the U.S. Court of International Trade.

February 18, 2010

11:00am to 1:00pm

at the

Johns Hopkins University
Applied Physics Laboratory
Kossiakoff Center

Cost:

Members - $15, Non-members - $20
Lunch Included!

Paid Registration due by 5:00 PM on February 12, 2010
Registration Form Attached

Questions? Contact us at (240) 547-9451 or www.freestate.org